

Project-1

Desktop Management System: -

A desktop Management system is a system where all the process that are being executed at desktop can be managed. Here a small part of implementation has to be done which are as: -

Specific task Group Member-1

- 1) Implement File-handling concept to describe
 - a) Total number of files in a drive.
 - b) Total number of image files
 - c) Total number of word files
 - d) Total number of text files(.txt)
 - e) Total number of executable files.
- 2) Implement File-handling concept to calculate the size of individual files.

Specific task Group Member-2

- 3) Organize all the files in a single drive as all the image files should be in a single drive.
- 4) Find all the C++ files and the number of object and executable files having .cpp as extensions.

Specific task Group Member-3

- 5) Display the name of files having at least 5 characters excluding extensions of files.
- 6) Display the largest file and the name of the drive in which it exists.